

Little wonders: At the Beijing International Art School, students rehearse for a performance in the school hall. A subsidiary of Circus China, the country's largest circus, the school has a popular acrobatic course that includes daily 14-hour training schedules and hookups with circuses worldwide. Photo: Jean Qingwen Loo / logue.sg